

Question

Dear support,

A few days ago, I wanted to create my personal document on TWiki by editing a page named SWGuideScram . Being new to TWiki, I edited the page to write something, just to understand how it works. Consequently, a new version of SWGuideScram was created. I decided to remove only my own version, but suddenly all previous versions of that page were removed and transferred to the trash.

I am really sorry for this. Could you please help me? How can I restore the page?

Thanks
